SENIOR ROUNDTABLE SERIES:

People: Your Firm's Most Precious Resource

Ask any principal or other firm leader in today's A/E/C industry what is the #1 issue they struggle with, and they will all tell you the same thing: finding and retaining talented people. Bottom line, there are more jobs in our industry right now than there are people to fill them. Are you, as a firm leader, doing everything you can to not only recruit – but also retain – the top talent in our industry? Is your firm cultivating the talent you do have in order to groom the leaders of tomorrow? Can your firm keep up as workload increases and the pool of qualified candidates to perform that work decreases? Join SMPS-GA for our 2007 Senior Roundtable which will focus on these and other tough questions regarding the biggest issue facing firm leaders today: human resources.
